

David Boone
Chief Executive Officer, Staples Canada ULC

David Boone was appointed Chief Executive Officer of Staples Canada ULC in January 2018. He is responsible for over 10,000 associates and the company's retail and online operations, overseeing more than 300 stores and Staples.ca, which carries over 250,000 products.

Boone is an experienced leader with a wealth of knowledge across multiple functional areas that include merchandising, marketing, data analytics and operations, and has had Profit and Loss responsibility for several multi-billion-dollar corporate divisions.

Prior to his appointment at Staples Canada, Boone served in a number of leadership roles at TD Bank Financial Group for over 10 years. He was most recently Executive Vice President for U.S. Partnerships, a business unit that serves millions of consumers and is focused on forming partnerships with leading North American retail brands to drive consumer loyalty and traffic.

Before joining TD Bank Financial Group, Boone worked with Loblaw Companies for 15 years and prior to his departure served as Senior Vice President and Business Unit Director. At Loblaw, he led its National Wholesale Division and drove its expansion into digital financial services, leading the company's bank and banking joint venture, President's Choice (PC) Financial.

Boone is a graduate of McMaster University. He holds an EMBA in business from the Kellogg School of Management at Northwestern University and the Schulich School of Business at York University.
